

Dodging Drama in a World Gone Mad: #1 Camp Chinook

My name is Callie Cortez and I'm eleven years old. School is out and summer is here! Not just any summer, but my last summer before middle school, so I planned to make it great! Some things, though, you have no control over and this summer turned out to be one of them. Summer should be about kids doing whatever they want, but mine was about being sent to summer camp. I'm really not a camp person! When life plays tricks on you like this, you just have to try to have fun and make the best of it! At least, that's what I kept telling myself over and over but never really believed it once my plans to relax all summer were crushed. I just had to get myself ready for what I knew would be a crazy adventure!
