

Amy Hodgepodge Lost And Found

Amy's fourth grade class is going on a fall wilderness weekend trip, but Amy's never done anything like that before. She's very excited at first, but soon discovers her camping skills aren't nearly as good as the other kids. Later, during a hike, Amy and part of her class get separated from their teacher, Mrs. Clark, and the nature guide. When the kids realize they are lost, they all begin to panic. Will Amy be able to finally do something right and help her classmates?
