

Lovestruck

They met at the casino on St> Maarten - he, a tall blond stranger who called her Lady Luck; she, a promising playwright revising her script for Broadway. When they met again in New York, he was directing her play. From the first, their onstage antagonism sparks offstage passion. But Jennifer has learned the hard way that love is a gamble when both players are wedded to conflicting careers. Though the drama of Dirks urgent lovemaking grows more thrilling than the prospect of opening night, Jennifer fears hat both her play and her romance will have but a limited engagement...
