

The 25 Most Influential Protestant Leaders in England

The 25 Most Influential Protestant Leaders in England looks at twenty-five men and women who influenced the path of Protestantism in England, Ireland and Scotland. Unlike Switzerland and Germany, for example, the success of Protestantism in England was in question for several decades, and the form it would take for over a century. Key figures such as Henry VIII, Thomas Cranmer, Oliver Cromwell and Elizabeth I are examined. This edition contains 35 photos.
